

Mark Kammerbauer
Cand.Prom. Bauhaus University Weimar
M.Sc. [Urban Studies] Bauhaus University Weimar
Dipl.-Ing. [Architecture] TU Munich

Curriculum Vitae:

2008-2010 Doctorate Studies, Bauhaus University Weimar
2009 Visiting researcher, Tulane University New Orleans, DAAD Doctorate Scholarship
2008 1. Prize: Alumni Award AFEU e.V. for best annual Master Thesis
2007 Field research in New Orleans and Houston
2006 Collaboration for DRO [Dienst Ruimtelijke Ordening] Amsterdam
2005-2007 Postgraduate studies at IfEU Bauhaus University Weimar
2003-2005 Freelance Collaboration for M Link Architekt BDA, Munich
2003 Relocation to Germany, Media and Sound Art Production
2000 Founding of www.nexialist.com Online Project Platform
1999-2003 Architectural designer for Poskanzer Skott Architects AIA, NJ
1999 Diploma, Thesis, Design Studio Prof. Deubzer, TU Munich
1993 Traveling in Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia
1992 Studies in Architecture, TU Munich
1991 Abitur, Dingolfing Germany, Civilian Corps Social Service, Munich
1979 Location to Germany
1971 Born in Ridgewood, NJ USA

Interdisciplinary Projects:

2007 Urban Evolution [media urbanism performance and video]
2004 Nexialist Operation Mimesis [electroacoustic architectural performance and video]
1999 Xenakis-Emulator [digital audio and video]

Lectures:

2008 TU Berlin, Laboratory for Integrative Architecture, "WET - Water. Environment. Typology."
2008 EFMSV International Conference Bonn, UN University: "Crisis Mobility in New Orleans"
2007 Bauhaus University Weimar, Chair for Architecture Theory: "New Orleans und Lower Ninth Ward"
2007 Technische Universität Munich, Chair for Urban Planning: "New Orleans, Katrina, und die Folgen"
2007 Institute for European Urban Studies, Weimar: "Transurbanity: Planning for City Regions"